

I hope that you do not allow increased media ownership. We have experienced in our community what happens when your news source is restricted to one major player. Not suprisingly costs will go up and information will be limited to that which they want to provide. Our founding fathers will be rolling in their graves if you allow this to go through.